Everybody's got a chance to be president, of course—the constitution says so—but what'll you take for your chance?

At the age of sixteen a girl imagines the average man is all soul, but at the age of thirty she knows he is mostly stomach.

No matter how high you climb, don't fail to remember that there's always a roomy place for you to fall when you want to tumble.

The fact that there will be no marring in Heaven isn't worrying a lot of men. They would like to have some assurance that there will be no borrowing there.

The price of gasoline is steadily advancing, and the owners of automobiles will soon be compelled to put a second mortgage on the machine in order to get the juice.

The home paper is sometimes not appreciated as it should be. When we get away it becomes dearer to us than ever. This is the reason why the Central Record is a weekly visitor to so many homes all over the United States.

Mrs. Galt is already beginning to realize the penalty of marrying a president. Cranks from all over the country are flooding her mail with requests for endorsements of egg beaters, hat pins, and a thousand or two other articles of more or less uncertain merit.

Anent to the hog cholera epidemic in Madison county, Robert F. Spencer, farm demonstrator, says: "The man who leaves a dead hog on his land to be eaten by the beasts of the earth and birds of the air is a distributor of hog cholera and is robbing hungry stomachs and taking clothing and books from the children in our needy land."

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

If this points to the Label on your Paper, your Subscription has expired. Please Hand us that Dollar.

We like to sing songs, read poetry, and make speeches by the hour on the freedom and liberties of the American people—this boasted "Land of the free and the home of the brave." We need to learn that patriotism consists not in the waving of a flag but in the striving to make our state and nation righteous as well as strong.

The ideal Christmas gift, is the gift of understanding. It comes through such study of the individual as gives one the necessary peep behind the curtain. The gift, to be really a gift, must not be the supplying of some everyday need. I don't think it means giving umbrellas and rubbers to the poor as if always making ready for a storm. The supplying of such wants does not come under the same head. I don't believe flowers are ever wasted on the poor. If one can requite some little hunger of the heart it is a wonderful thing.

There are many persons—you meet them in the streets, at dinner, and at crossroads stores where farmers gather—who glibly say that if good times have arrived they are not participating. Good times never did mean that everyone has a bank balance. Hard times never did mean that nobody had a dollar. Individual financial well-being results probably, but not inevitably, from a general business activity. There are persons always who are experiencing hard times. But nowadays they cannot, if at all informed, attribute their personal situation to a general situation.

The one enduring and possible peace for Europe must come through an overwhelming victory on the part of the Allies. Should the war end otherwise it will not be peace that follows, but merely repression. A condition such as existed between France and Germany after the war of 1870, when Germany, in a spirit of brutal might and lust for conquest, raped France of a part of her territory, imposed an enormous indemnity for having robbed her and then hated and mistrusted her for having deserved her enmity. But Mr. Ford presumably does not distinguish the difference between peace and repression.

Some residents of Boston received the following announcement daintily printed in old English a few days before a recent Christmas:

"To All Whom it May Concern—Greeting: We again bespeak your good will and assistance in adding to the cheer of Christmas eve by placing lighted candles in the windows of your houses between 6 and 10 at night, to the end that the hearts of passersby may be gladdened and that the day of good will and glad tidings may be fittingly commemorated."

The response was more general than was expected. Scarcely a house of those to whom the appeal was addressed but had its candles arranged long before the hour appointed and promptly at 6 o'clock lighted up in a flare of Christmas light. The effect of good Christmas cheer and of welcome to the coming festival was charming. The custom will be observed hereafter.

PENSION SURGEON.

Dr. J. A. Amon, of this city, was appointed pension examination surgeon last Monday, says a special dispatch to the Courier Journal. We are not prepared to say how lucrative this appointment is, but we know it is a popular one and the clever physician is to be congratulated.

DR. GANFIELD TO PREACH.

Dr. W. A. Ganfield, president of Center College, will fill the pulpit of Rev. J. Rockwell Smith at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Mr. Smith is still confined to a hospital at Lebanon, where he is under treatment of Dr. McChord, of that city. Many are the prayers that are offered each day for the speedy recovery of this good and popular man.

COL. FARRIS LOSES.

Gov. Stanley has named B. Williams, of Frankfort, to succeed Col. George Farris, to the position of executive marshal. This place has been held by Col. Farris since it was created in 1914. The position is a lucrative one and was much sought after. Mr. Williams was an original Stanley man, and was in charge of Stanley's headquarters in his senatorial and gubernatorial primary campaigns in Franklin county.

FOR SALE OR RENT.

The Dr. Mays property, within one mile of Paint Lick, on Richmond road near two railroad station, churches, and in walking distance of Paint Lick's flourishing High School. The house has ten rooms and there are fifteen acres of land attached. Come let us sell or rent you at once. No more desirable property in the county. Hughes & Swinebroad.

REV. GEO. T. PEEPLES.

Rev. G. T. Peebles of the Methodist Conference M. E. Church South, brother of J. L. Peebles of Winchester, who formerly preached here, died in Lexington, Tennessee, November 27, aged 73. He was one of five brothers Methodist Itinerant Ministers, and one of four confederate soldiers. This is the first death, all having lived 54 years from entering the war and perhaps the only family North or South furnishing as many as four to the army and all surviving the war half a century. The father of these sons, Rev. Benjamin Peebles, of Paris, Tenn., entered the Methodist ministry at 18 years and died near 87 years. He formed the first Methodist Circuit west of the Tennessee River early in the 19th century. He raised up eight Methodist Itinerant ministers in his home, five sons and three orphan brothers-in-law.

DRUG STORE BEAUTIFUL.

One of the most beautiful drug stores of Central Kentucky is that of Mr. John E. Stormes, in this city. Where this beautiful and up-to-date store stands has been known as the "Stormes Corner" for over fifty years. Mr. C. C. Stormes the father of our druggist had a drug store on this spot before the war and when John was a small boy he changed the style of the firm from C. C. Stormes to C. C. and J. E. Stormes. In loyalty and in memory of a devoted father that is the name of the firm today.

Many changes have taken place in our little town in all these years, and this drug store, tho never changing its name, has changed in every other way, for it has always kept abreast of the times. First it was enlarged, then beautiful windows put in, then a handsome soda fountain, only recently it was redecorated by a city artist and a mezzanine floor placed in it, where you can have coca cola, soda water, ice cream, hot chocolate, bouillon and sandwiches far above the noisy crowd, where you can see and not be seen as it were. Where you can eat, drink and be merry in the most private way imaginable. Mr. Stormes with a heart and mind always alive to progress has made a beautiful and bright spot in Lancaster that we feel sure will be a joy forever.

HOW TO SEASON

YOUR SAUSAGE.

In giving the receipt for seasoning sausage, we evidently misunderstood Mrs. Alma Pope, and gave too much cayenne pepper. The following is correct: To 12 pounds of sausage meat, use three tablespoons each of salt and black pepper, two tablespoons of sage, and one pint of cayenne pepper. —Danville Messenger.

We made some sausage by the above formula and we are still of the opinion that you "have too d—much pepper".

OPERA HOUSE

FRIDAY NIGHT DEC. 17TH
"CAMEO KIRBY"

SYNOPSIS

Cameo Kirby so-called because of his fondness for cameos, is the son of a New Orleans plantation owner who died insolvent. When the plantation and slaves are sold at auction. Cameo's favorite body-servant is bought by one of his father's old friends, John Randall.

After the sale, Kirby and Randall start north on one of the Mississippi River boats. Randall meets an acquaintance by the name of Col. Moreau, and after losing heavily to the Colonel on a wager concerning a race between the boat on which they are traveling and another river steamer, consents to a game of poker to get satisfaction. Kirby, who, though his friendship for a certain gambler, is himself adept at the manipulation of cards, suspects that Moreau is not playing an honest game, and finally succeeds in forcing himself in and taking a hand. Randall, having lost all his money wagers his home. The hand is played, and Kirby wins. Moreau accuses Kirby of cheating, and Randall, not appreciating that Kirby has won only to prevent the estate from falling into the hands of Moreau, shoots himself.

When the body is taken ashore, Kirby meets Adele Randall, the daughter of the dead man, and immediately falls in love with her. But he stands in a very bad light—as a man who has taken the very home from a friend who has just assisted him—and, of course, is held responsible for the suicide. Tom Randall, the son of the suicide, swears to avenge his father. When Moreau and Kirby fight a duel, with results.

This is a Paramount picture and is a good one. They are shown every Tuesday and Friday nights. The management also desires to announce the securing of the Mutual service which has never before been shown in Lancaster. This service will be run every Thursday and Saturday night for the present, and on Monday and Wednesday nights, Universal pictures will continue to be shown. This makes an excellent program for each week.

In the near future a serial picture will begin, the best one that can be booked. The management would like to receive suggestions from anyone as to the best serial to book.

TO THE GROWERS OF GARRARD COUNTY:—The Madison Tobacco Warehouse Company advertised to open its sales December 2nd. We sold on this date some 40,000 pounds of tobacco at a general average of 9 cents which seems a better average than last year for same quality of tobacco. The drouth stopped the sales until the recent rains, we are now having and we will continue to have daily sales. We also stated that by your generous patronage you had enabled us to sell more tobacco on this market than all other houses combined. We hope this year to show you fully our appreciation of this fact by securing better prices than we have ever gotten before.

Our Prices For Selling Have Remained Just the Same as Last Year, This in Spite of More and More Expense to us, Each Year but we wanted to sell for you just as low as it could be done, to bring any return whatever on our investment, this we are now doing. We are Independent Absolutely of every other house or combination of houses. Our market is as strong as any in the State despite what any body tells you. Have had but 3 days selling and have already reached the 25c price for a basket and have sold many for 20 and up to 25c. We are able to quote the following as among the best we have had, and this too when no real fine tobacco has been offered.

Smith & Agee 1390 lbs average 15.25. Smith & Agee 1285 lbs average 14.80. Mat Crews 2930 lbs average 10.25. Thomas Pitcher 1010 lbs average 13.30. J. H. Million 1100 lbs average 12.00. E. N. Burrus 1174 lbs average 12.00. Reagen & Agee 2655 lbs avg 11.00. These are among the best prices for crop lots that we have made. We expect these prices to get better just in proportion to the quality of tobacco offered. We are ready with a trained and well equipped force to handle your crop, as we have always done, in a matter entirely satisfactory to you, and to secure the very best prices that can be gotten. House open day and night. We will be glad to see you.

SINCE TAKING PERUNA

I can say my bowels are much more regular. My heart is stronger. My appetite is much better. My throat is much better.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for Peruna."

Those who object to fluid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

HERE'S NEW VIGOR FOR OVERWORKED STOMACHS.

R. E. McRoberts, the popular druggist, has been in the drug business long enough to have his own opinion of the best way of selling medicines. He says the plan adopted by Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy, is the fairest he has ever heard of. He doesn't believe that a medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. And Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to relieve dyspepsia or to refund the money. You simply leave 50 cents on deposit with him and if, after you have used the box of Mi-o-na you decide that it has done you no good, all you have to do is to tell him so and he will return your money.

Hundreds of people have been relieved of stomach agonies by using this remarkable remedy. It is not simply a food digester; it is a medicine that puts all of the digestive organs into normal condition and gives ruddy, glowing, vigorous health. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Mi-o-na, and its continued use will soon give the power to eat anything at any time and not suffer distress afterward. Use Mi-o-na and see how much more there is in life.

We are authorized to announce Miss Jennie Higgins a candidate for County School Superintendent of Garrard County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary August 1917.

The sympathy of the average person goes out to the more unfortunate in life, but there are few who are willing to give their services to this kind of work. It requires patience and especially self sacrifice to reach out and help the depressed. We believe that a person is nearer the cross of calvary when they are extending the hand of assistance to the needy in life than at any other time. This was the mission of the Man of Galilee. Why not yours? There are many families in Lancaster in want—some who have not really enough to eat or wear; others very little fuel. Some will say these unfortunate should have worked during the summer and fall instead of idling away the hours. That, perhaps, is a logical argument, but must the little children suffer because of the neglect of parents? There are few families in Lancaster or vicinity but what have clothing, shoes and other wearing apparel that they could donate to a cause of this kind, without depriving themselves. So as the holidays approach, make some boy or girl, or even an older person happy by giving something out of your abundance.

Governor McCreary pardoned 511 men convicted of crime during his four years' term of office which has just expired, which is 49 less than the mark set by Gus Willson, his predecessor.

STANLEY TAKES

THE PLEDGE

Will Not Touch Intoxicating Liquors or Allow Any Served In Executive Mansion.

Governor-elect A. O. Stanley has made a public pledge that during his term of office as Chief Executive of Kentucky he will be a total abstainer from the use of alcoholic stimulants himself, and will bar all such liquors from the Governor's Mansion at Frankfort.

This announcement was made at the Warren Memorial Church in Louisville Sunday afternoon by Dr. Aquilla Webb, pastor. The occasion was the mass-meeting under the auspices of the International Peace Forum. About 600 men and women were present.

In opening the meeting, Dr. Webb announced that he had been authorized by Mr. Stanley to make an important announcement to the meeting. This announcement, the minister continued, would be one of interest to all the people of Kentucky.

"Mr. Stanley has authorized me to tell you, Dr. Webb said, 'that while he is Governor of Kentucky not one drop of intoxicating liquor shall be admitted to the Executive Mansion, nor served at any dinner given by the Governor, and that he, himself, will be a total abstainer during his term of office.'"

The people of Kentucky, Dr. Webb said in concluding his announcement, have reason to congratulate themselves on the stand taken by the incoming executive. The audience received the announcement with hearty applause.

LOOKS GOOD FOR BANGS

Representative Harvey Helm has introduced a bill in congress providing for the payment to Lewis Landram, editor of the Danville Messenger, for $5,000, due the late W. J. Landram, when he was collector of Internal Revenue in the Eighth Kentucky district. Here's hoping "Bangs".

OUR NEW POST OFFICE.

We were in error when we stated in our last issue that the contract for the soil investigation has been awarded to Mr. Horace Herndon, when in fact Mr. J. A. Beazley secured this contract, his bid being about ten dollars less than that of Mr. Herndon's.

A letter from Congressman Helm states that we are to get this building and that plans and specification will be prepared in a few weeks. The assistant treasurer having authorized $5,000 to begin the work.

ANOTHER FIRE.

The residence of Mrs. Isaac Hamilton, on Maple Avenue, caught fire from an overheated grate, last Monday evening, entailing a loss of several hundred dollars before the blaze was extinguished. The fire originated in the room of Mr. W. B. Burton, whose loss is nominal, with no insurance. Mrs. Hamilton's loss is several hundred dollars, which was covered by insurance.

WALKER FOR CONGRESS

Judge L. L. Walker, of Lancaster, appears to be regarded as having the inside track for the Republican nomination for Congress next year in the 8th district, which is considered good. G. O. P. fighting ground since the Eighth District only went Democratic by a meager majority. Judge Walker, who was the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor in the last campaign, showed up to good advantage in his home district and this fact has served to boom his congressional stock. —Louisville Times.

OUCH!

Shelton Sauley, of the Stafford Interior Journal, in advising Col. Woodson May, of Somerset, as to what office he should or should not accept under the Stanley administration, says:

"Don't let them hand you any lemon pie like 'Assistant Fire Marshall' after all you have done for them. Woodson, if they insist on giving it to a newspaper man, let them give it to Ed Shinnick; it's about his size."

Well, well! and if Stanley should give a piece of pie to every newspaper man in Kentucky, commensurate with his size, the piece to which Sauley would be entitled would be so infinitesimally small that it could be put into a jaybird's eye. —Ed Shinnick.

BANQUET TO OFFICERS.

After a business meeting of the officers of the Christian church held in the directors room of the Citizens National Bank, last Thursday evening, the entire board was delightfully entertained at a banquet, by Mr. B. F. Hudson at Kenganian hotel. A most sumptuous menu had been prepared by Mrs. Zimmer, consisting of five courses, which was heartily enjoyed by the following, who were fortunate indeed to have been present on this happy occasion. J. A. Beazley, R. T. Embury, L. G. Davidson, M. L. Caneer, Henry Moore, B. F. Hudson, Thos. Anderson, J. R. Haselden, J. B. Collier, V. A. Lear, W. R. Baslin, J. J. Walker, G. D. Robinson, W. S. Carrier, Edgar Price, W. S. Embury, H. V. Bastin, O. T. Layton, R. E. McRoberts, Theo. Curry, J. W. Elmore, J. H. Dalton, R. L. Elkin, F. M. Tindler.

LOGAN

Mrs. Matilda J. Logan died Dec. 13th, near Crab Orchard. She was the widow of Mason Logan, a well known Mexican soldier, who preceded her twelve years ago.

Mrs. Logan was born Sept. 2nd, 1839, being seventy-six years of age. She was the oldest child of Dr. John Bradshaw, of Columbia. She is survived by a brother, T. W. Bradshaw, and a sister, Mrs. Nannie E. Kelley. Of her immediate family, she leaves two sons, Walker Logan and H. H. Logan, and one daughter, Mrs. Harve Foley.

Mrs. Logan was a life long member of the Baptist church. Her affliction during the last twelve years was borne with great fortitude. She possessed a most cheerful and happy disposition and numbered as many friends among the young as among the old. Her aim was always to make others happy. She will be missed by many, in whose memory she is held dear. Her resignation and willingness to Death's summons was indeed beautiful.

Her remains were carried to Freedom church Tuesday Dec. 14th, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Foley, after which all that was mortal of this good woman, was laid to rest in the church cemetery; a spot of ground given by Mason Logan's father over 112 years ago.

MUST HELP IF STANLEY

IS A SUCCESS.

Many papers throughout Kentucky and many prominent people, also, are writing and talking a great deal on "What a great opportunity Mr. Stanley has." They write and talk about the public debt, about clean elections, about the tax system, and that the public should be brought face to face with the distressing financial conditions. Now what are they going to do to help Mr. Stanley? No living man can handle the reins of government without cooperation from the people, but in Kentucky, sad to say, a big majority of these papers and people, who have been bringing these conditions before the public, are against Mr. Stanley at heart. They would be glad to see his administration a failure. If they have the interest of the state at heart they will pitch in and not only offer up a prayer for Governor Stanley's administration, but aid him in every way possible to place the old state high up in the list of great commonwealths of the nation. Without your help he is helpless. Without the aid of the legislature his work for the good of the state will amount to nil. If the lobbyists who have swarmed around Frankfort for years are allowed to continue their nefarious work, Kentucky will go backward instead of forward. Mr. Stanley will pilot the old ship of state safely if some of you "I-told-you-so's" will just not rock the boat. —Winchester Sun.

ABOUT THAT WEDDING.

Mrs. Norman Galt's interesting home, with its charming rose colored drawing rooms and simple graceful furnishings of old mahogany, will make a charming setting for the wedding. It will be decorated with flowers from the White House conservatories.

The fine new carnation, now under cultivation, which is to be named the "Edith Bolling pink," in compliment to the President's bride, is being forced by careful nursing, to reach its full glory in time for the wedding. Lilies of the valley are also being forced and will be used in the decorations, together with Mrs. Galt's favorite orchids, for which the White House conservatories are famous.

Few know what gown the President's bride will wear. Many boxes and packages of all sorts have been delivered at her residence the last few days, many of them bearing the New York postmark. It is believed that if she purchased her wedding gown in New York, it has not yet been delivered. It is virtually certain that Mrs. Galt did not purchase the gown in Paris at the expense of $1,300, as it was rumored.

In deference to the simplicity of the ceremony it is thought Mrs. Galt will wear a simple gown. One creation has been hanging in her cupboard for several weeks which would meet all requirements. It is made of handsome materials, on long plain lines, and its only trimmings in some fine old lace that has been in the family for years.

The announcement at the White House that only members of the two families and the President's immediate household would attend the wedding, and that no formal invitations would be issued, surprised official Washington. It had been expected that at least a few friends would be invited.

The Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Protestant Episcopal church, which Mrs. Galt has attended in recent months, has been tentatively selected as the officiating clergyman, although it is possible that the Rev. Sylvester Beach, pastor of the President's church in Princeton, may assist. The President is a Presbyterian. The wedding ceremony will be held in the drawing room of Mrs. Galt's home, where a temporary altar will be erected. The ceremony will be an evening affair.

MRS. M. JOSEPH

SAYS EXCELLENT

Louisville Woman Asserts Tanlac Benefited Her Wonderfully.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 15.—Mrs. Minnie Joseph, wife of Louis Joseph, the well-known employe of Fountain Ferry Park, is among the hundreds of Louisville people who recently have endorsed Tanlac. Mrs. Joseph said:

"I have suffered from nervous debility several years. My system was all run down. I had nervous headaches and was generally depressed in spirits. 'I used a number of preparations in the hope of bettering my condition, but nothing seemed to accomplish the right results until I began taking Tanlac. Tanlac has proved a most excellent tonic in my case. It relieved me wonderfully. I am so much better and I willingly recommend this medicine.' Tanlac is now being sold in Lancaster at R. E. McRoberts drug store, and in Bryansville by Becker, Ballard and Scott.

THE AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY

The growth and magnitude of the automobile industry is marvelous.

The growth of the electric industry alone rivals it. Together they are modifying our social life in a bewildering manner, and have an economic importance of the first rank. The value of the automobiles sold in the last fiscal year was $625,000,000. The industry consumed 13,000,000 barrels of gasoline and 20,000,000 gallons of lubricants. Eight million tires were used, and there were 51,000 workmen employed in a single State, while there were 448 factories in 34 States.

Amazing as these figures are in themselves, their influence upon the affairs of our times can only be realized when their reaction upon other industries is added to the picture. It is said that motor vehicles traveled ten billion miles. If there were no more than three passengers in each vehicle, that is thirty billion passenger miles. The steam railways report that in the same year they carried 1,033,000,000 passengers an average of 34 miles for each journey, or a passenger mileage of 34,000,000,000.

There is no wonder that the railways are feeling the competition of the automobile, and that the jitneys have thrown some electric roads into poverty. The automobile and the telephone together have done more than all the uplifters to encourage the "back to the land" movement. Many farmers now live in towns and go to their farms as men of business go to their offices. Many other farmers are content to remain on the farms which are annexed to the towns as truly as the towns are annexed to the farms. The territory convenient to cities has been vivified astonishingly. Thousands buy acres, adding the price of an automobile to their investment, and then are independent of other forms of travel. There can be no doubt that hundreds of millions of real estate values have been created in the manner, while the effect upon good health is inestimable, both in the sense that the figures cannot be given and that they are beyond price. It is said that there is now one automobile to each mile of public road, and almost one to each square mile of territory. That must be a powerful stimulant to the good roads movement, and that in turn adds value to all farm lands. It has been said that there is no value in farms over ten miles from a railway, because the cost of the wagon haul absorbs the profit of the crops. Those figures must be revised when the roads are carried to the farms and the cost of the haul is reduced by the economy of motor carriage.

When European governments at war with each other will not listen to the tenders of good offices from the heads of neutral nations, what reason have we to suppose that they would give even a thought to the blatant demands of private American citizens who apparently think more of newspaper notoriety than they do of peace?

EMBRY.

Samuel J. Embry, Sr., a prominent Lincoln county man, passed away at his home north of Stanford on the Lancaster pike last Friday. He had been in poor health for a number of years. Mr. Embry was 80 years old. He was one of the county's largest farmers. All of his life he had been an active Democrat. Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, Joe T. Embry, chief bookkeeper under Auditor Henry M. Bosworth, at Frankfort; Deputy Sheriff Will S. Embry and Sam J. Embry, Jr. of Stanford.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

A memorial service was conducted at the Christian Church by the women of the C. W. B. M. in memory of Mrs. Belle Walton Burdette. Mrs. Ellen Owsley, a devoted friend, conducted the service, telling of her first impressions of Mrs. Burdette, of how she came here a stranger and entered at once into the church work. She brought out her influence as a Sunday School teacher, citing the instance of her leading her entire Sunday school class of young boys up to make the good confession at a protracted meeting conducted by Bro. Hobson. Among the number, she could recall her own son, Will Owsley, and Will Jennings both of whom preceded her to the grave, others were Will Watson and Bob Elkin. Mrs. Kauffman spoke of her loyalty to the church and Aid Society. Mrs. McRoberts spoke of the inspiration the minutes she wrote gave her upon taking her place as secretary of the Aid Society.

Many were the sweet and tender memories of this Christian woman. Truly, to live in the lives and hearts of those you leave behind is not to die.

Having sold my business, will appreciate a prompt settlement of all accounts. Harry Anderson.

EXPOSITION CLOSED.

At midnight on Saturday Dec. 4th the lights went out in the Great Exposition at San Francisco and it became a thing of the past.

In cost, extent and beauty it was the greatest exposition ever held. Fifty million dollars were expended on it and yet with this vast outlay the managers say it has been a financial success.

The attendance reached nearly eighteen million, another high water mark. What was at first thought would be its undoing proved its best asset—The European war. For the great flow of travel which formerly went across the Atlantic was to a large extent diverted to California. This is especially true of residents of Eastern States and cities.

Mrs. James C. Richards, of Ford, Clark County, Ky., who was stricken down with consumption in February, 1865, says: "I had more than twenty doctors to treat me and I used all the remedies of that day, but I received no benefit. In November, 1870, Dr. T. B. Smith passed through Boonesboro, where I was lying sick, so low and weak I could not raise my head from my pillow. For six months I had been waiting for death to relieve me of my sufferings. Dr. Smith gave me one quart of Lung Tonic, and I afterwards used 3 gallons during the following two years. I am now (November 1912) still living and well. I am satisfied there is no remedy equal to it. I rejoice to say my life was saved by this wonderful remedy and to tell others who are likewise afflicted."

"I BOUGHT A BUNCH OF PIGS"

"Got the biggest piece of news yet," yelled Dave Thurman as he rode up to the old blacksmith shop at Ashbottom.

"Well give it to us, Dave."

"John Hughes's goin' to run for school trustee."

"No, you're jokin', Dave. John, he's too busy a farmer to bother with bein' school trustee, besides he hasn't got any kin folks teachin' school that I ever heard of."

"That may be so, but I got word about it mighty straight. His wife tol' mine he was goin' to run an' I reckon that's just about as straight as anybody could get anything. Here he comes now on his ol' bay mare, an' you can ask him for yourselves."

When the tall, fine-looking man had given the blacksmith some instructions concerning the mending of a doubletree, he turned to the men and said:

"I'll bet anything Dave has told you I'm out for the office of school trustee for Ashbottom Sub-district."

"Yes, he said you were goin' to run, but we couldn't hardly believe it," answered one of the neighbors.

"Why not?"

"Well, because mighty few men ever wanted the trouble and bother of worryin' with a young teacher an' a lot of children. Besides there ain't a penny in it an' plenty of hard work if the man does his duty."

The candidate sat down on the frame of the grindstone under the big elm and quietly crossed his legs. For a time he was silent with an odd, bitter smile on his face. At length he arose and said:

"Any one of you men would fight if anybody told you that you really didn't love your children, wouldn't you?"

The men about him nodded their assent and he hurried on.

"You do love 'em; I know you do because I love mine, too. But boys, there's ever so many ways of lovin' children an' it's only lately that I've seen a new way to love 'em. My children have been goin' to school out at the little school house for five years an' I hardly ever gave 'em a thought. I voted for any ol' galoot that wanted to be trustee just like you have."

"What made you swap around in your ideas?" asked one of the men.

"Feedin' hogs an' keepin' my eyes open."

"Don't you joke with us, John, we want to know."

"I have already told you, but I haven't told you the whole story just as it happened to me. You fellows recollect I bought a big bunch of pigs just about the time school opened. Well they were as nice a bunch as I ever saw, so I wanted 'em to be fed right. My regular hand, ol' St, was sick, so I had to hire a new man to do the feedin'. While I was lookin' around I put the hogs in that clover field down next the school house so they'd have grasin' enough an' plenty of water."

"I reckon you boys think I'm takin' a long time to tell you the story, but I believe it'll change your ideas about the school like it did mine. Well, the day I put the hogs in on the clover a nice lookin' youngster about 18 years old come over to hire to me an' feed the hogs. I talked with him an' he was bright all right, but he never had fed hogs. He had worked on a farm an' he had a pretty good education, an' I wanted to hire him, but you see I was afraid to risk feedin' a lot of corn to pigs that stood me five hundred dollars in hard money."

"I don't blame you," remarked one of the men, "but how did that make you decide you wanted to be trustee?"

"I'm comin' to that now. After the young man had left an' I'd finished feedin' the pigs, I went over to the school house as I was so close by. When I went in the door I reckon I was still thinkin' about the pigs an' the young man I was afraid to hire. At any rate I looked over the room. My children and your children goin' to school to a mite of a sweet little girl of 18. I'd known her nearly all her life an' I was certain this was the first school she'd ever taught. I knew she's only finished goin' to school herself last year."

"For a minute I felt like a fool because I knew I'd been afraid to trust the feedin' of my hogs to a youngster without experience an' yet here were four of my own children goin' to school to an 18-year-old little girl without any experience."

"That's the reason I told you I was learnin' to love my children a new way, an' that's the reason I'm goin' to take time to be trustee so I can see that my children an' your children get a fair square deal from now on."

CLEAR THE CHANNEL

GIVE PEOPLE GREATER POWER

The people of Kentucky are interested, deeply interested, in education, as is shown by the advance made in the last ten years. The people want this development and advancement to be of a strong and lasting type, but this can not be accomplished either rapidly or consistently so long as the school system remains in politics. Every good citizen and parent in the state wants the management of their child's educational advantages divorced from politics.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is a constitutional officer and must be elected at a regular election of state officers, and he can not succeed himself. To make this a little plainer, it might be well to state that the name Superintendent of Public Instruction is one of the many names on the ballot, and interest in the election is centered, not on him, but upon the head of the ticket. Frequently a state ticket is elected on a big public issue, absolutely foreign to school matters, and the result is the Superintendent of Public Instruction goes into office, not as a school man, but as part of a successful party ticket.

No business could be carried on with thorough success if the general manager knew that at the end of four years he must give up his position to a new and untried man, no matter what progress he was making. This is exactly what the state is now doing with its important business, the business of manufacturing strong citizens out of the raw material of child-life.

It is proposed to amend the Constitution of the state by striking from Sections 91, 93 and 95 of the Constitution the words "Superintendent of the Public Instruction."

The objects to be accomplished by this amendment are to enable the people of this state to take the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction out of politics and to continue in office for a longer period than four years any Superintendent whose conduct of the office is highly efficient.

Under the operation of the Constitution, which compels the election of Superintendent of Public Instruction for a term of four years, and which makes this officer ineligible to succeed himself, the people are prevented from eliminating the office from politics and prohibited from retaining in office an efficient officer.

The public, in urging this change, should bear in mind the fact that even with the quickest action possible under the law this amendment would not be effective until the candidate elected next August will have served his full term, so that no complications or ill feeling need be developed.

Where in our Savior's birth is celebrated,
The bird of dawning singeth all night long,

No fairy takes, nor witch hath power to charm,
So hallowed and so gracious is the time.

We have made special efforts to be able to offer the public suitable and useful remembrances for this beautiful season spoken of by the great poet.

TREAT CATARRH BY

NATURE'S METHOD

Every Breath of Hyomei Carries Healing Medicated Air to the Infected Membrane.

Nearly every one who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it with sprays, lotions, and the like. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would probably have said the only way to help catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with a simple preparation called Hyomei you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day successfully treat yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle does not give permanent relief, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained at any time for a trifling sum. It is more economical than all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only treatment known to us that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

McRoberts has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and he more he sell, the more convinced he is that he is perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not relieve.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." ## A TREACHEROUS TROUBLE

Lancaster People Are Shown The Way Out.

Kidney diseases are very dangerous. They come on silently, gain ground rapidly and cause thousands of deaths that could have been prevented by proper treatment in the beginning. Nature gives early warnings of kidney disease—backache, twinges of pain when stooping or lifting, headaches and urinary disorders. If these symptoms are unheeded, there is grave danger of dropsy or possible Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills have earned a reputation for their effectiveness in kidney troubles, and are known and recommended the world over. Lancaster readers should find convincing proof in the following statement. It's from a citizen of this locality.

R. C. Faulkner, R. F. D. No. 2, Box 134, Paint Lick, Ky., says: "I suffered for some time from a weak back. A dull pain through my loins gave me much trouble. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They soon removed the aches and pains."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Faulkner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GROWING OLD.

A little more tired at close of day;

A little less anxious to have our way;

A little less ready to scold and blame;

A little more care for a brother's name,

And so we are nearing the journey's end

Where time and eternity meet and blend.

A little less care for bonds and gold;

A little more zest in the days of old;

A broader view and a saner mind,

And a little more love for all mankind;

A little more careful of what we say,

And so we are faring a-down the way.

A little more love for the friends of youth;

A little less zeal for established truth;

A little more charity in our views,

A little less thirst for the daily news;

And so we are folding our tents away

And passing in silence at close of day.

A little more leisure to sit and dream,

A little more real the things unseen;

A little bit nearer to those ahead,

With visions of those long loved and dead

And so we are going where all must go,

To the place the living may never know.

A little more laughter, a little more tears

And we shall have told our increasing years;

The book is closed and the prayers are said,

And we are a part of the countless dead

Thrice happy, then, if some soul can say,

"I live because he has passed my way."

Mr. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs. W. R. McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—The Mothers' Favorite.

"I give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my children when they have colds or coughs," writes Mrs. Verne Shaffer, Vandergrift, Pa. It always helps them and is far superior to any other cough medicine I have used. I advise anyone in need of such a medicine to give it a trial." For sale by all dealers. 1-m

GREATEST WAR IN HISTORY

Present Conflict Dwarfs All Others Which Have Been Waged In The World's History.

Former wars were wars of armies and governments: this war is a war of nations. Former wars were wars of soldiers: this is a war in which the chemist and the manufacturer and the workman at home are as vital to victory as the fighters at the front. Former wars were on a great scale, but none of them saw, as this has seen, some 20,000,000 men under arms.

Former wars were expensive, but never until now has civilization paid $50,000,000.00 a day for the pleasure of blowing itself to pieces. Former wars brought in their train, within certain narrow limits, a derangement of commerce, but no war, except this one, has precipitated an economic and financial upheaval of such unimaginable dimensions that there is probably not a single human being on this planet who has not in one way or another for good or evil, directly or indirectly, been affected by it.

Former wars took place—or such of them, at any rate, as can be compared with the present one—before the credit system had become internationalized, before the telegraph and the cable and railways and the steamships were invented, while the mechanism of modern trade was as yet in its infancy, and when each nation, to a degree we cannot now hardly perceive, was able in the man to support itself.

This war has burst upon a world so bound together by 10,000 links of commerce, finance and communications that a shot fired in the Dardanelles sends down the price of wheat in Chicago, and the intervention of Great Britain disorganizes for the time being the trade of China and Brazil, and armies are raised in the ends of the earth, transported across the seven seas to a single spot, and there fed and clothed and munitioned from the resources of another hemisphere thousands of miles away.—Atlantic Monthly.

To those who may have become tired of the old-fashioned games usual at Christmas the following may be found suitable:

Hunt up a lot of poor people that have not any Christmas dinner and go and give them one.

John Woods of Lexington was here last week representing Peoples Tobacco Warehouse Co., of Danville.

Mrs. Icie Kemper and family desired to thank the neighbors who rendered invaluable help during the late illness of her daughter, Miss Nettie Lee Kemper.

The stripping of tobacco is greatly hindered by the dry season. The farmers have been anxious about it too to get their stripping done before the cold weather sets in.

McCullon Ison went to Lancaster one morning last week to meet the early train when his horse which was hitched near by became frightened at the train and ran never stopping until it got to the gate at home. Mr. Ison was about half a day getting the harness together. The buggy was beyond repair.

There will be no meeting of the Ladies Working Society until the first Wednesday in Jan. 1916 on which date it will meet with Mrs. J. W. Mahan. An account of the years work will be read by the efficient treasurer. New officers will be elected on said afternoon to serve for the ensuing year. All the members are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Nettie Lee Kemper died of pneumonia at the home of her mother Mrs. Icie Kemper, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This frail little life passed away like a dream—so quietly that the family did not realize she was dead for a little while afterward—only sleeping. Miss Kemper was the daughter of the late Harvey Kemper and would have been 51 years old the 22nd of February. She was an uncompromising Baptist, believing in the fundamental doctrines of her church and lived by its teachings to the end. She was an active church worker, teaching in the Sunday school, was secretary of the Ladies Working Society and was willing to do anything for the upbuilding of the church to which she belonged until 33 years ago when she became an invalid. Her interest in her neighbors was always manifest. She loved oratory and during the temperance campaign several years ago would often be called on to speak or rather recite for the temperance cause. Often times the audiences would be melted to tears by her speaking. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved family, especially the only sister who loved her so devotedly even to that

TENNESSEE OFFICIAL WINS LONG FIGHT

J. W. Seaton of Linden, Clerk of the Circuit Court of the Twelfth Judicial District of Tennessee, was for years a sufferer from stomach troubles—in part a result of his confining work. He tried doctor after doctor. He tried medicines without end.

One day he took a dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. He wrote:

"Your medicine is the best in the world for any form of stomach trouble. I am glad to say that after taking the full treatment I feel that I am well."

"I had very severe pains in my stomach all the time. One bottle of your medicine did me ten times as much good as all the doctors' medicine that I took for two years. My family physician told me that I would never be any better—today I am well. I have gained twenty-five pounds."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

of a mother's love. When in intense pain she would reach out her tiny little arms and cry "Oh, Lillie Bet (as she always called her) can't you do something for me, I am suffering so". The faithful sister who nursed her thru her invalidism did everything possible to ease her suffering and was never known to murmur or complain of the trial. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Ocie Kemper, one sister, Mrs. Robt. Clark, and a brother Mr. Arthur Kemper of Kansas City. She was buried in the Forks cemetery on Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mahan, her pastor. To the bereaved ones we recommend them to the submission of the will of God who doeth all things well.

EASY WAY TO MAKE HAIR ATTRACTIVE.

Ladies who find trouble in properly or attractively arranging and dressing their hair should try using a little Parisian Sage twice daily for a while and note the remarkable improvement. Parisian Sage, which can be obtained from R. E. McRoberts or any drug counter, makes the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and wavy, takes out the dull, lifeless appearance, dissolves the dandruff and stimulates the hair roots into healthy normal action. Instead of merely sprinkling the hair, it should be rubbed right into the scalp with the finger tips. Parisian Sage is a delightful treatment for both hair and scalp, cannot possibly injure the hair and is very inexpensive. 12-9-2t.

GERMANY PAYS $200,000 FOR 20 TONS OF BROMINE.

With a check for $200,000 in his pocket, E. C. Smith, a salt manufacturer of Hartford, W. Va., said that he had just sold to the German Government twenty tons of bromine for $5 a pound.

Bromine, before the European war, was largely used for medicinal purposes, Germany producing fully 80 per cent of the world's output at about twenty-five cents a pound. With the development of asphyxiating gases, bromine leaped into prominence, and when it became known that Mr. Smith's company produced it as a byproduct, flattering offers were received from an agent of the German Government and representatives of another European country. Each wanted it badly, but the Germans finally landed the prize. Payment, Mr. Smith said, had been made to him in Pittsburgh. He would say nothing concerning the plans for sending the bromine out of the country.

ELLEN WILSON CALENDAR.

The Ellen Wilson Memorial Calendars are now on sale. Many of them have been sold for Christmas remembrances, for their beauty appeals to the most aesthetic. The nation reveres the memory of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, the patriot, the home-maker the Christian. These calendars through exquisite pictures and significant quotations add to the appreciation of this beautiful character. A purchase of one of these means that one receives full value for the purchase price, which goes at once on a mission of helpfulness to some mountain girl or boy who through the aggregate collection of these sums may receive an education.

HIGH COST OF LIVING.

No wonder wonder they didn't have any high cost of living in the old days. After supper the family would gather in the front parlor with the what-net and the marble-topped center table, with the wax flowers in the glass vase and the old family Bible and the cabinet organ; daughter would preside at the organ while the rest of the family sat around on the red plush sofa and the horse hair chairs and sang: "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Abide With Me" until 9 o'clock and then went to bed. Nowadays, after dinner, father goes to the theater to see a burlesque show, daughter goes to the movies with her best fellow, and mother goes out in the garage and puts a new inner tube in her machine.

NOT PARDONED.

The last executive day of Governor McCreary's administration passed with no pardons forthcoming for Beach Hargis, slayer of his father, James Hargis; Curt Jett, the former mountain gunman; former City Comptroller, Samuel Wilhite, of Louisville; George Alexander, the Paris banker; Gus Rooke, the Louisville banker, or Henry Youtsey, serving a life term for his connection with the assassination of William Goebel. None of these were recipients of eleventh hour clemency, and the meeting of the State Prison Commission adjourned without pardoning any of them.

MARY'S ANIMAL SHOW.

Mary had a little lamb—
Twas Persian—on her coat;
She also had a mink or two
About her dainty throat;
A bird-of-paradise, a tern,
And ermine made the hat
That perched at jaunty angle
On her coiffure, largely "rat".
Her tiny boots were sable topped,
Her gloves were muskrat, too,
Her muff the heads and tails of half
The "critters" in the Zoo,
And when she walked abroad, I ween
She feared no wintry wind;
At keeping warm, 'twas plain to see,
She had all Nature "skinned".

HUNTERS TAKE NOTICE.

And we further agree to act as Deputy Game Wardens for the purpose of carrying out this agreement. Except each of us have the right to kill rabbits on our farms or permit it to be done by another under our supervision, or the supervision of some responsible and reliable person selected by us.
